

CENTER FOR NYC NEIGHBORHOODS

Need help with Build it Back?

Non-profit legal services and housing counseling agencies are working with homeowners recovering from Sandy to help prevent foreclosure and progress through the Build it Back program. Homeowners can start working one-on-one with a counselor free of charge.

How can a counselor help?

A Build it Back counselor can help:

- ✓ Prevent foreclosure, reduce unaffordable mortgage payments, or negotiate a forbearance with your bank
- ✓ Analyze options under Build it Back and help homeowners make key decisions
- ✓ Obtain program credit under Build it Back for Sandy recovery expenses
- ✓ Obtain insurance money that a mortgage company is withholding
- ✓ Resolve issues caused by a Small Business Administration (SBA) disaster recovery loan
- ✓ Overcome issues with ownership requirements

Connect with a counselor:

- 1 Contact the Build it Back Counseling Hotline at 646-237-5925
- 2 Visit one of the Counseling Desks at one of the Build it Back Centers below. Walk-ins are welcome.

Hours

Monday: 2pm—7pm
Tuesday—Friday: 9am—7pm
Saturday: 10am—4pm

Housing Recovery Center Locations

Breezy Point / Ft. Tilden — 415 State Rd.
Coney Island / HRA — 3050 West 21st St.
Staten Island / KIA — 1976 Hylan Blvd.

Build it Back Counseling Partners:

Counseling is made available through a partnership between the Center for New York City Neighborhoods and the New York City Mayor's Office of Housing Recovery Operations